

Children/Youth

Recent data by the Unesco Institute for Statistics indicates that poverty remains a significant barrier to students receiving an education in Cambodia.

With your help we continue to be able to provide more than 2,000 Cambodia children with support to attend education programs.

14-year old Sreyleak and her two younger brothers are some of the newest children to join education classes. Read more about Sreyleak's story.

By providing older youth, like 20-year Chenda*, with the job skills they need to find safe employment it often impacts the entire family. Read more about Chenda's story.

Families

Our social workers meet with families living in poverty and discuss the most pressing needs that parents have so that they can better provide for their children.

Sometimes assisting families means helping with urgent house repairs. Sometimes it involves helping parents like Bopha set up a small income generating business.

*Malea, a mother of six children and a member of our Alcohol Support Group has stopped drinking for more than one year now and helps by providing a positive influence to others in the group. Read more about Malea's story.

Communities

Having access to appropriate information empowers families and communities. Our teams meet regularly with groups in local neighborhoods and villages to provide information on such topics such as child's rights and child abuse, domestic violence, drugs prevention, alcohol abuse, and health education.

The ChildSafe Movement continues to grow. We are very proud to have recently trained and certified 86 students at the Don Bosco Hotel School in Sihanoukville.

Be ChildSafe. Learn more about how can get involved and join a community of people dedicated to protecting children.

Want to help?

In a short video, Eve Saosarin, our Director, talks about one of our current needs and how you can help.

Sandan, M'Lop Tapang's restaurant, is part of the Tree Alliance of training restaurants working to build futures for former street youth, marginalized young people and adults.

For those of you in parts of the world that are still enjoying some nice summer weather, our Sandan team wanted to share their recipe for one of our most popular drinks at the restaurant - tropical Mango Lime Daquari.

We also wanted to take this opportunity to wish everyone a good Pchum Ben.

For those of you that don't know, Pchum Ben starts next week and is one of the biggest holidays in the Cambodian calendar. M'Lop Tapang, like most organizations in the country, will close for one week so that staff can return to visit families in the countryside.

Learn more about Pchum Ben.

M'Lop Tapang has been working with disadvantaged children, youth, and families since 2003.
